Kurtz. - Abram S. Kurtz was born June 13, 1855, in Berks Co., Pa., where he remained a respected and life long resident of the vicinity of Morgantown. He died Sept. 15, 1912, of heart failure; aged 57 y. 3 m. He attended church services as usual though he complained of not feeling well when he started to church on Sunday morning. Shortly after the congregation was dismissed he walked to the open air and while speaking a few words to a friend he suddenly sank to the ground and before his wife came to the scene life had already peacefully expired. He was married to Susanna Yoder of Millersburg, O., on Jan. 3, 1878. To this union were born 6 children of whom all are living except one daughter who was summoned to the spirit world in the prime of her youth, also 2 grandchildren are living. Funeral services were held on Wednesday morning at the house by Bro. Solomon Schlabach of Millersburg, O., and Bro. J. Stoltzfus of Elverson, Pa. Interment at Pine Grove, Cemetery near Elverson. Pa.

Kurtz. - Isaac S. Kurtz was born Oct. 12, 1862, near Morgantown, Pa., died Nov. 11, 1922. He was a life resident of Conestoga Valley. He was aged 60 y. 30 d. His death was caused by a paralytic stroke. His end came very suddenly. He went to the barn in the morning, as usual, to help do the chores but was not there very long until he told one of the family he was not feeling well and went towards the house. When he got to the porch he called for his wife. He was taken to bed and fell into a sleep about 7 o'clock and passed away about 10 p. m. He is survived by his wife, 5 daughters, 1 son, and 12 grandchildren. He was the first of the family to pass on to the other side. He was a member of the A. M. Church. Funeral services were held Nov. 15, by Bro. David Yoder and Bro. J. S. Mast.

"Father thou hast left us lonely,
Here our loss we deeply feel,
But tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal."

Transcriber's note -- I think they left out the word "died" or "lived all his life" before (on the farm where he was born)
