

Census Records
Isaac S. Mast

1880-United States Federal Census
Caernarvon Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania

Isaac S. lived with his grandparents after the death of his mother.

Residents in the home of Isaac Mast (Family 171):

Name	Relation	Age	Occupation
Mast, Isaac	Head	57	Retired Farmer
Mast, Mary	Wife	53	Keeping house
Mast, Mary	Daughter	19	At home
Mast, Isaac S.	Grandson	15

The 1880 census provides the following additional information:

Mary is listed as attending school within the census year.

Neighbors:

Listed as Family 170: Robert Yocum living with daughters, Annie and Maggie; a nephew, Slater; and a gentleman boarder, Samuel Evans.

Listed as Family 172: Isaac Mast Jr.; wife, Lizzie; daughter, Annie; servant, Mary Patton; and boarder, Jonathan Yoder who was a farm laborer.

1890-United States Federal Census

Much of this census was destroyed by fire at the Department of Commerce.

We believe Isaac was living with his father Benuel.

1900- United States Federal Census
Union, Mifflin, Pennsylvania

Isaac is listed as living with his brother-in-law David Hooley and sister Salome. His birthday and age seem to be confused with another resident of the household named Mollie. It makes sense that he was living in Mifflin County at this time. He went there to find a wife because he wanted one that was not related. He married Fanny Yoder in 1901.

Residents in the home of David B. Hooley (Family 103):

Name	Relation	Birth Month and Year	Age	Occupation
Hooley, David	Head	Feb 1869	31	Farmer
Hooley, Saloma	Wife	Feb 1872	28
Hooley, Mollie		Mar 1883	17	Servant
Hooley, Clarence D.	Son	July 1897	2
Hooley, Omer	Son	June 1899	¹¹ / ₁₂

Mast, Isaac S.	indecipherable	May 1883	17	Farm Laborer
----------------	-----------------------	----------	----	--------------

The 1900 census provides the following additional information:

David rented his farm.

David and Salome (Aunt Lomie) were married 6 years.

All adults in the residence read, write, and speak English.

Neighbors:

Listed as Family 102: John Renno living with wife Lydia, son David S., and daughter Fannie R.

Listed as Family 104: Christian Yoder living with wife Esther, servant Nancy Yoder, son Levi D., and servant John A. Yoder.

Note: Grandpa Isaac's handwritten autobiography puts him in Belleville working for his brother-in-law, David Hooley, in 1899 and living in Kishacoquillas Valley until he and many others moved to North Dakota in 1903.

1910-Thirteenth Census of the United States Nedrose Township, Ward County, North Dakota

Residents in the home of Isaac S. Mast (Family 1):

Name	Relation	Age	Occupation
Mast, Isaac	Head	35	Farmer
Mast, Fanny	Wife	32
Mast, Timothy	Son	7
Mast, Charity	Daughter	5
Mast, Eunice	Daughter	3
Mast, Ruth	Daughter	⁶ / ₁₂
Yoder, Emma	Hired girl	26	Servant

The 1910 census provides the following additional information:

Isaac, Fanny, Timothy and Emma were born in Pennsylvania.

Charity, Eunice and Ruth were born in North Dakota.

Timothy did not attend school in 1910.

Isaac rented his farm.

Isaac, Fanny, and Emma speak English, read, and write.

Emma was a family member (Fanny's sister).

Neighbors:

Listed as Family 2: Harry and Mable Ronk and their children John and Florence.

1915-North Dakota Territorial and State Censuses Nedrose Township, Ward County

Residents in the home of Isaac S. Mast (Family 35):

Name	Age
Mast, Isaac	Male 20 to 60

Mast, Fanny	Female 20 to 60
Mast, Timothy	Male 5 to 20
Mast, Charity	Female 5 to 20
Mast, Eunice	Female 5 to 20
Mast, Ruth	Female 5 to 20
Mast, Isaac	Male 5 or under
Peden, Stacy	Male 5 to 20

The 1915 census provides the following additional information:

Listed as Family 34: Noah F. and Laura Milan along with Daniel, Nora, Dora, Elizabeth, Willis, and Sarah.

Listed as Family 36: Isaac Berg, a foreigner. Also, in this household were John B., Willie, George, and Haalmer Berg and Gunder Stubskind.

1920-Fourteenth Census of the United States
Nedrose Township, Ward County, North Dakota

Residents in the home of Isaac S. Mast (Family 33):

Name	Relation	Age	Occupation
Mast, Isaac	Head	45	Farmer
Mast, Fanny	Wife	42
Mast, Timothy	Son	17
Mast, Charity	Daughter	15
Mast, Eunice	Daughter	13
Mast, Ruth	Daughter	10
Mast, Isaac	Son	6

The 1920 census provides the following additional information:

Charity, Eunice and Ruth were all attending school.

Neighbors:

Listed as Family 32: D. S. and Anna Kauffman and their children Carl, Nelson, Floyd, Floy, Harold, and Herbert.

Listed as Family 34: C.D. and Minerva Lambert and their children Vestal and Lehman.

1930-United States Federal Census
Amenia Townshio, Cass County, North Dakota

Residents in the home of Isaac S. Mast (Family 20):

Name	Relation	Age	Occupation
Mast, Isaac	Head	55	Farmer
Mast, Fanny	Wife	52
Mast, Eunice	Daughter	23
Mast, Ruth	Daughter	20
Mast, Isaac	Son	16	General farm laborer

The 1930 census provides the following additional information:

Isaac was 26 years old when he married and Fanny 21 years old.

The Isaac Mast family lived on a farm which they rented.

No one in the family attended school.

All could read and write.

Neighbors:

Listed as family 21: Tim and Flossie Mast and children Ellsworth and Helen.

1940-United States Federal Census
Third Ward, Casselton, Cass County, North Dakota

Residents in the home of Rev. Isaac S. Mast (Household 37):

Name	Relation	Age	Occupation
Mast, Isaac Rev.	Head	65	Religious worker
Mast, Fanny	Wife	62
Mast, Eunice	Daughter	33
Mast, Isaac	Son	26	Truck driver

The 1940 census provides the following additional information:

The Isaac and Fannie owned their home with a value of $1500.

All four family members attended school through the 8th grade.

Isaac S. worked 48 hours in the prior week and his son worked 40.

Neighbors:

Listed as Household 35: August and Catherine Grabaw.

Listed as Household 37: Martin and Grace Turchin and son Kenneth.