He lived in the vicinity of Belleville until the spring of 1903, when he with his family and four other families moved to Surrey, N. Dak., where he resided until 1921. In 1922 he moved to New York where he made his home with his son until his death. He had been failing in health for the last year, but his case was not thought serious until the last few weeks of his life. He had no desire to get well again, but wanted to go home. He was a member of the Mennonite Church, located near Clarence Center, N. Y., he having united with the Amish Mennonite Church in his youth. Funeral services were held at the home of his son, S. Y. Yoder, conducted by Bro. C. L. Ressler of Clarence, N. Y. The body was then taken to Belleville, Pa., for burial. Here services were conducted by Bros. J. D. Yoder and E. D. Hess. Burial in cemetery near Belleville.

Father dear, we greatly miss you,
But our loss is your gain;
And some day we hope to meet you
Where there is no more sorrow or pain.
His Sons.
