

JOANNA

The wedding reception held in honor of the marriage of Amanda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Mast, of Conestoga, and William Smoker, of Atglen, at the residence of the bride's parents, south of Morgantown, was one of the largest held in that vicinity. The mansion was filled with guests. Fourteen fowls, including turkeys, geese and chickens; more than 75 pies, and a score or more of double-layer cakes, together with fruits, vegetables and all the other dishes and desserts that are palatable, were included in the menu.

The most prominent guest was Mrs. Rebecca Mast, grandmother of the bride, who is over 73 years of age. She enjoys excellent health and, together with the bride, was the centre of affection and adoration.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Mast, parents of the bride, Annie Mast, Lennie Mast, Sadie Mast, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Kurtz, Owen Kurtz, Rev. John S. Mast and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David H.
